

Energizing People > Powering the Future

© Swire Pacific Offshore

Executive Overview

M410

Power Systems Executive Overview

Course Description:

An overview course focusing on the basic principles of vessel power systems in use in the offshore industry, the constraints and challenges involved in the design and operation of such systems, and the purpose and key features of the various components of these systems.

Learning Outcomes:

To gain an overview of the principles of offshore power systems.

Prerequisites:

Staff attending should be familiar with vessel operational procedures.

Participants:

Vessel managers, superintendents, office-based staff, project staff, electrical support and engineering staff.

Duration:

1 day

Macaé:

Rua Arquimedes de Souza França 95
Granja dos Cavaleiros
27930-145
Macaé, RJ Brazil
T +55 (22) 3518 3021
macae.training@ge.com

Rugby:

Boughton Road
Rugby, CV21 1BU, United Kingdom
T +44 (0)1788 563563
marine.training@ge.com